NOTICE (2)

In The academic session 2022-23, The IQAC meeting in The second semester was organised on 5th December 2022 Monday in The conference hall of The institution. In this meeting, along with The IQAC members, all The staff members were also invited by The direction of The chairperson of The IQAC.

In The view of additional activities to take place in The institution, it was kept in mind that all The staff members should be well aware about The activities

proceedings

At The outset, The IQAC coordinators welcome all The participants in the meeting and narrated the contribution of all The elements due to which the institution has been progressing day by day and also also highlighted the achievement of 'A' grade in the previous cycle of NAAC. Thereafter the principal and IQAC coordinator chairperson Dr. Bakare addressed all the participants and the agenda of the meeting was proceeded.

Agenda and Minutes

1. To review the AQAR of 2021-22
In the view of first agenda, various points were discussed to fulfil the expectations of AQAR-21-22. The chairperson expected from all that the recommendations of the NAAC committee should be always kept in mind and the activities should be organised accordingly. He appealed all to make the attempts to make the AQAR 2021-22 stronger by organising offline as well as online activities.

2. To discuss on signing MoU.
As per the recommendation of NAAC peer team, the MoUs are to be extended as well as new MoUs are to be signed. It was appealed by the chairperson that all the departments should try to search for such institution / organization / govt office / NGO to sign the MoU with the institution. MoU plays a pivotal role in order to outreach the activities of the institution.

3. Discussion on autonomy proposal of the GUG.

Gondwana University, Gadchiroli offered the institutions in the university which has been accredited by NAAC with 'A' grade. In this connection, honorable V.C. discussed with principal Dr. Bakare regarding autonomy of the institution. Principal raised the issue in the meeting. The staff members expressed their opinions about the ins and outs of the autonomy of the institution. It was decided that one more meeting will be organised for further discussion.

4. The topics by the permission of the chairperson

The chairperson principal Dr. Bakare suggested all to arrange a study tour to T.B.Sci. college Wardha which is an autonomous institution for study perspective.

Principal Dr. Bakare also assured all that the vacant positions in the Teaching and non-Teaching are to be fulfilled at the earliest. He added that the endeavours are to be taken soon to do the needful.

Coordinator Dr. Ujeda proposed a Vote of Thanks
