During the academic session 2020-21, IQAC organised eighth meeting on Friday, the 9th July 2021 in Conference Hall at 9:30 am. Chairman of IQAC and Principal of the institution Dr. S. S. Bakare Sir, and all the IQAC members were present for the meeting. As the NAAC peer team visit is going to visit the institution on 3rd and 4th August 2021, along with IQAC all the teaching faculty members were also invited.

The non-teaching staff of the institution was also present in the meeting.

Though the impact of Covid 19 is not yet completely eradicated, all the necessary precaution was taken in the meeting like use of mask and use of sanitizer.

At the outset, co-ordinator Dr. K. C. Ujeda welcome all the faculty members as well as non-teaching staff in the meeting. He appealed all to get ready to face the NAAC peer team visit by fulfilling every requisite documentation, power point presentation and to leave no stone returned.

Thereafter principal Dr. Bakare Sir took the charge of the meeting. He expressed his satisfactory remark about the departmental activities, files preparation, PPT preparation and many more things by the faculty members. He said that the pandemic has been postponing the peer team visit in the institution, but at last the institution received the authentic mail from NAAC Bengaluru about the visit and now we all have to gear up for the welcome of the peer team.

Agenda and The Minutes

1. Review of the departmental preparation regarding upcoming NAAC visit.

In the previous NAAC meeting (7) held on 9th March 2021, all the departments have been found ready to face the NAAC cycle, but NAAC could not visit due to second wave of Covid 19, hence the principal Dr. Bakare appealed all the teaching as well as non-teaching staff to take a review of all the preparation of filing, documentation, PPT presentation, department decoration, laboratories decoration to exhibit maximum output of the department in the impressive manner.

2. Review of the criteria-wise preparation
Principal appealed all the faculty members as well as non-teaching faculty members to take a review of all the requisite documents and add more documents of additional activities if any remained incomplete or might have ignored during the previous preparation.
3. Suggestion from the faculty members
Many issues were discussed in the meeting regarding the visit of NTA peer team.
4. To perform cultural programme in front of the team and guests during peer team visit.

- b. Orientation of college students regarding their attendance in the college during peer team visit.
- c. Selected Alumni Association Members should be informed about the peer team visit to remain present during the visit.
- d. Parents should be informed and invited during peer team visit.
- e. In addition to the departmental documentation, a file to be added comprised of departmental best practice.

In the end, principal appealed all to cooperate with the best of the ability in order to make the NAAC peer team visit a successful event.

The meeting was concluded by the vote of thanks. Dr. L. C. Tyade proposed vote of thanks on behalf of IQAC.

CHAIRMAN, IQAC

Shri. D. S. Chavhan
